

Dale Jones

Dale started at 5 Paper Buildings as junior clerk in 1988. In 2004 he was elected as senior clerk.

The legal directories have frequently commented on the service provided by Dale.

The 2016 Legal 500 called him "undoubtedly the best out there".

In the 2014 edition, Chambers and Partners called him "magnificent" and said that he is "singled out for his ability to solve problems".

"5PB has more obvious crossover criminal practitioners in the consumer credit and trading standards fields than most, and they are well marshalled by senior clerk Dale Jones."

In 2013, they noted that chambers continued to be "well clerked by the highly respected Dale Jones".

Between 2006 and 2010, Dale was treasurer of The Institute of Barrister's Clerks. He remains a member of their Management Committee.

Elsewhere, Dale enjoys walks in long grass searching for golf balls, an array of spectator sports and is a lifelong Millwall fan.
